Press Release

Paris, October 22, 2014

AREVA's Supervisory board, which met today in Paris, has confirmed its confidence in the group's Executive Board.

Given the absence of Mr. Luc Oursel, and in the current transition period, the Supervisory Board has decided to bestow Mr. Philippe Knoche the same powers as those of the Chairman of the Executive Board, until the next General Assembly will be held to decide the change in the governance.

MORE ABOUT AREVA

AREVA is a world leader in nuclear power. The group's offer to utilities covers every stage of the nuclear fuel cycle, reactor design and construction, and operating services. Its expertise and uncompromising dedication to safety make it a leading industry player.

AREVA also invests in renewable energies to develop, via partnerships, high technology solutions.

Through the complementary nature of nuclear and renewables, AREVA's 45,000 employees contribute to building tomorrow's energy model: supplying the greatest number of people with energy that is safer and with less CO₂.
