Carrefour's acquisition of Dia France approved by the Competition Authority

Carrefour has received the approval of the Competition Authority to acquire Dia France. This decision marks a positive step in the completion of the purchase of Dia France's activities.

This acquisition will allow Carrefour to continue its multiformat expansion in its domestic market.

This approval is the result of a constructive dialogue with the Competition Authority. Under the agreement, Carrefour will acquire more than 800 stores and must then separate from 56 stores.

The transaction should be completed in the coming weeks.
