

Press Release

Paris, June 29, 2012

CLEARING AND SETTLEMENT OF THE SHARES OF LE GUIDE.COM

In accordance with the timetable set by NYSE-Euronext, the clearing and the settlement of the shares of LeGuide.com, consecutive to the public contractual offer of the Lagardère Group, acting on behalf and for the account of its subsidiary Lagardère Active, took place on 28 June 2012.

Therefore, Lagardère Active now holds 2,154,360 shares of LeGuide.com, representing 61.39% of the current share capital, and 59.32% on a fully diluted basis.

The shareholders' general meeting of LeGuide.com will take place on 16 July 2012. A Board meeting whose composition will reflect the control of Lagardère Active, will be held at the end of this shareholders' general meeting, and will appoint an independent expert who will give its opinion on the price of the mandatory public offer, which, subject to such opinion, should be €28 per share.

This mandatory public offer will be filed, in accordance with the applicable regulation, by Lagardère Active in August and should be opened at the beginning of September subject to the agreement of the AMF.

Press contact : presse@lagardere-active.com
Delphine Marçais – + 33 (0)1 47 23 19 66