THEOLIA closes sale of 100 MW wind farm portfolio to RheinEnergie

THEOLIA closed the sale today of 100.6 MW of operating assets and wind farm projects to RheinEnergie (Cologne, Germany). The signing of the deal was announced on June 29, 2009 and had been pending authorization from the German Federal Merger Office (Bundeskartellamt).

The portfolio consists of 19 wind farms in Germany with approximately 80 MW in operation and the balance expected to be commissioned by the end of the year. THEOLIA's German subsidiary will provide full operational management for the life of the individual farms.

The parties agreed not to disclose the price of the transaction.

Reminder

THEOLIA will publish its first half 2009 results after the close of market on August 31, 2009.
