

Press Release

Paris, 9th July 2012

The Rémy Cointreau Group announces that it has entered into exclusive negotiations with the shareholders of the Bruichladdich Distillery Company Ltd with a view to possibly acquiring its entire share capital.

Founded in 1881, Bruichladdich is a renowned distiller of Premium Single Malt Scotch Whisky based on the Isle of Islay in Scotland, and is recognized by experts throughout the world for its high quality products.

In the event of a favorable outcome of negotiations, the signing of an agreement will remain subject to information and authorization procedures in accordance with current regulations.